Jenny was such a good friend to me during our freshman and sophomore years at ChristWay Academy. I have many wonderful memories of her and will cherish those. She reached out to me in 2000 when my brother died in a car accident, and it truly touched me. She has been in my thoughts over the last 10 years, yet I regret losing contact with her. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family. Lean in to God, He will provide the peace that you need to get through this extremely difficult season in your lives. Johnny, Sandra, Mike, and the Children, We sorrow with you on the passing of Jennifer. We were in Colorado when we got the word, wish we could have been there for the memorial. All present were quick to inform Mike of what a precious individual he had chosen. We will miss her smiling face.##imported-begin##Dave & Pat Witt##imported-end##

I am so shocked and saddened for Jenny's children and family right now. I know heaven is an even sweeter place now, but that cannot take away from the loss of a person as kind and easy to love as I remember Jenny. We went to high school together and I remember last seeing her at our 10th reunion. Her personality and joyful disposition was as wonderful as she had always been. She is going to be missed very much. My heart and prayers are being lifted up for all the Uptons and Greens and her fiance.##imported-begin##Andrea Studt##imported-end##

I have been out of town for the holidays and just learned of Jennifer's passing. I have 3 sons and a husband that all went to Jennifer for hair cuts. She always wore a smile and had a great sense of humor. She helped me to get through tears, temper tantrums, desire for longer hair than the school would allow and various stages of bringing up boys. She always did it with a smile and a nod to the Lord. They loved her as did I and she will be greatly missed. Michael, I wasn't aware of your impending marriage but I am sure your sorrow is great. Keep your eyes on God and know that you are in our prayers. Although I never met any of your children, your mother talked of you often. Her love for you was apparent, as you seemed to be always in her thoughts. You also have my sympathies.##imported-begin##Toni Holland##imported-end##

A few days after we closed on the house next to Jennifer's, we had a birthday party before we moved in any furniture. So when she got home she saw cars lining the street in front of a house that was presumably empty with the for sale sign still in the yard. She came over to investigate with her daughter, and after we convinced her of our ownership, they came in and had cake. We were so happy to be moving into a neighborhood with people who actually watched out for their neighbors. Although we didn't see each other often, I always new she was there if I needed "sugar" like a good neighbor would. We will miss her presence, and we will pray for your family.##imported-begin##Wendy Lowry##imported-end##

excerpts from funeral message
Sandra, you carried Jennifer in your womb for nine months and I can't imagine the pain you're going through as a mother. I saw your love and compassion for her as you were kneeling beside her Monday. Johnny, I know how much you loved Jennifer for she was daddy's little girl; the emptiness your feeling I know is unbearable. I know parents should not have to bury their children. Lean on your faith and ask the Lord to fill the void that your hearts are feeling. Thank God for the 38 years you shared with her and we thank the Lord for bringing you two together to bring her into the world so she could leave behind three pieces of her life-Bryan, Rebecca and Paul. Michael, your love for Jennifer was so evident, you found a companion who completed you and you completed her. The love you two shared was truly once in a lifetime. I cannot begin to understand your confusion and loneliness at this time. I cannot imagine your pain and confusion you are experiencing right now. I know God is a good God and I know Jennifer was a true Believer, but I do not understand why the Lord would take her just four days before you were to be married and to experience your first kiss together. All I know is the scripture she loved and had highlighted in her Bible says, Jeremiah 29:11, "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." And in Isaiah 55:8, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the LORD. Michael, embrace your faith and ask the Lord to help bring understanding and peace to your heart through this time of grief. Brian, Rebecca and Paul, I know you miss your mom and I know you're still in shock from all this. No child should lose their mom so young, but one thing you need to always remember and keep dear to your heart, is how much she loved you. As I was reading through your mom's Bible, I came across several photos of you and pictures that you drew when you were very young, things she was holding on to remind her of you. Your mom loved you so much and I want you to keep her memories alive by remembering that love. Talk about your mom to each other, share funny stories and laugh. Continue to stay in Church as your mom set you a pattern to follow, continue to be involved in your youth group, continue to read and study your Bible just as she did and wanted you to. And when those lonely nights come and you wake up crying in the middle of the night, remember your mom will always be inside each of your hearts. Her spirit lives on in each of you honor your mother by following her life and faith.##imported-begin##Michael Heim##imported-end##

What a beautiful, loving and sweet person we have had the privilege to encounter. Jennifer styled my hair just once, when my regular stylist was closed. But in that one meeting, it was evident she was a special soul. Jennifer's love for her children was immense, and without a doubt she believed each of them to be special gifts of God. I saw Jennifer at dinner dining out with her children once and said hello. She smiled that shy way she had, and you could tell she was like a protective mother hen covering her children. My son, Steven Tyler, and I are deeply saddened by Jennifer's passing. He is severely autistic and Jennifer has been cutting his hair for years. She was a very special person to our family because of her gentle nature with our son. Somebody will have some mighty big shoes to fill! May your family find peace and comfort in this time of sadness. Our prayers are with all of you and a candle will be lit in Jennifer's honor in Steven's "Happiness" garden.
