Obituary

Nerva Roberts

MAR 29, 1914 - JAN 31, 2010

---

Nerva was loved and respected by all who met her. She always had a winning smile for everyone, plus words of encouragement. Her philosophy of life was "when times were good, that was just fine, but when times were not so good, well that's just fine too," because God was in control of all events in her life.

Nerva, a mother, grandmother, aunt and friend will be missed by her loving family and her host of friends, but we are all comforted by the fact that she is with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, a place of Eternal rest with no more pain or suffering, no sorrows or tears. There is no place on Earth to compare.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Oakland Heights Baptist Church, Darlene Mathews Ministry, both in Longview, or to the Port Caddo Baptist Church in Marshall.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Katrina Woods and all the faithful employees at Songbird Assisted Living for their constant, loving care over the past 8 years. Also to Sandi Long R.N., Adrian, and Chaplain David Reeder with Texas Hospice for their compassion, care and visits over the past 6 months.

A memorial guestbook may be signed online at www.raderfh.com.

I was so glad when my dad HB Harrel Barber Kiser asked me to go on a long road trip to visit his sister, Nerva, a couple of summers ago. He needed to see her and I was able to enjoy the visit we had with her and Billie Ruth. My dad passed away in January and I know there has been a great reunion of many loved ones. ##imported-begin##Barbara Howell##imported-end##
