Cathy, I just heard about Haley and am heartbroken. She was my best friend through junior high and high school and she was so spunky and such a fighter. That's what got her this far in life. My heart goes out to you and your family. I just see her now up there having a ball with Bro. Dick. I love you all and you are in my prayers. Kathy, I'm sorry for your loss. I remember being in classes with Haley in high school. She was always very active, funny and just an all around ball of energy. You couldn't help have some of it rub off on you and brighten your day. May the Lord watch over you during this time.###imported-begin##Gavin Gilmore###imported-end##

Cathy,We just heard this morning and we are so heartbroken about Haley. I know she is not suffering anymore and she and Dick are having a good time watching all of our struggles down here. She will always be remembered and loved. I remembered the time she had an asthma attack with me and I drove like a mad person to get to her house to get her inhaler. I was so mad at her for not having that inhaler with her. It just seems to be unreal. You are in our thoughts and prayers. You have been such a wonderful Mother taking care of her all these years and always there for her. God Bless you. Keep in touch.###imported-begin###Jeannean and Gary Schliesser###imported-end###

My best to the Vestal Family, I have many good memories of David and Haley from high school! David was a very good friend to me and we had lots of great times..I always knew Haley as David's little sister, and am heartbroken to hear of both of their passings. I do know that God will give them the best of everything that He has to offer! I also pray for the peace and understanding needed to get you through this rough time.##imported-begin##Shane Andrews##imported-end##
