Thank you, Aunt Bonnie, for the many memories on Lake Cherokee. I believe I learned to ski there. I remember the big catfish Dad brought in from the trot line. I thought it was a log. I was sleeping on the kitchen floor of the old red house. Great swimming too and the stump I could stand on near the boat lane. Fun fun fun! We'll miss you.##imported-begin##Ronnie Marr##imported-end##

David and Cathy,So sorry to learn of Bonnie's death. I was her Realtor at Lake Cherokee when she sold the house there. She was one of my favorite clients at the Lake. I will always remember how much she loved working in the yard and the beautiful landscape she had created with the winding driveway. But most of all I remember a fine Christian Lady. She will be missed greatly, but I know you have wonderful memories that will help you to laugh more than you cry in the days ahead.In Sympathy,Nell##imported-begin##Nell Raper Boren##imported-end##
