It was great having Elizabeth as a friend and Aunt growing up in Gladewater. My memory of her is her happy demeanor, acceptance and kindness toward the children of her extended family. When you were around Aunt Elizabeth, she always made things better than they seemed. She was a great comfort in difficult times to my Mother. We miss you Aunt Elizabeth.##imported-begin##Pat and Toni Newman and Family##imported-end##

What great memories of such a wonderful lady. As a high school graduate, I started work at the First National Bank/Longview, and she was a delight and inspiration to work with. I've kept in touch throughout the years and have been blessed to know this lovely lady. My sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Charles Huffman##imported-end##

I taught Elizabeth in Sunday School at First Baptist Church. You can imagine how backwards I felt - a young mother teaching women my mother's age. And yet, Elizabeth was one of my great encouragers. She talked often about how much she loved her family. I feel blessed to have known her. I am grieving with you.###imported-begin##Amy Hill###imported-end##
