Phillip Wayne Williams

MAY 5, 1942 - MAY 15, 2010

P hillip Wayne Williams

Phillip Wayne Williams, 68, went home to Heaven in the arms of his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Saturday, May 15, 2010. He was born in Freeport, Texas, May 5, 1942. Wayne was a dedicated and loving husband and the most wonderful father anyone could ask for. Wayne will always be remembered as a faithful and true friend to all who knew him. He was one who always loved to have fun. His love for our country was immeasurable and he was always proud to talk about his years of military service in the United States Marine Corps. His love for the Lord was evident in all he thought, said, and did. He was a great man of character and integrity. Wayne was a hard worker who loved accomplishing great things. He built an impressive career in the aerospace industry that spanned over forty years. He was truly blessed to have a remarkable career. Wayne lived his life for his family and had no greater joy than spending every available moment with them. He was truly everything to his family. Wayne was pre-deceased by his loving parents, Paul and Louise Williams; and his grandparents, J. Marvin and Alma Walden; and aunts, Sue Richardson, Renee Gordon and Ruth Lemon. Wayne is survived by his wife, Sandra Williams; daughter, Kimberly Mullikin Toby; and son, Phillip Wayne Williams Jr.; and brothers, Marvin Williams Dorothy, Paul Williams Jr. Linda, and Ray Williams Gale; aunts, Lila Hathaway and Jean Cajigal Pete; and many beloved nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends. Our husband and father was greatly adored and will be sorely missed. Our faith in God will strengthen us until we join him in Heaven one day.

A memorial service honoring Wayne's life will be held at Rader Funeral Home in Longview, Texas, on Thursday, May 20, 2010, at 12 noon. Pastor Charles Hunt will be officiating. In lieu of flowers, a donation can be made in Wayne's memory to the Woodland Hills Baptist Church Building For Kingdom Growth Fund, at 2105 E. Loop 281, Longview, TX. 75605.

Dear Sandra, Kim, and Phillip, With mixed emotions do I write to you at this time. It is an honor to be called a friend of Wayne Williams. In the last 15 years, Wayne provided a constant source of encouragement to me. His optimistic spirit helped during some very challenging times. I will miss him during this time of separation, but look forward to hearing him call me by name when I see him face to face in heaven. "Now may the Lord of peace Himself give you peace always in every way." Agape, Bruce Coe

Dear Sandy, Phillip, Kim and Toby, We were so saddened to hear the news of Wayne. We know he was such an important part of your lives. It's always inspiring to hear of people who live life to the fullest and make things happen. He accomplished what we all hope for...he made a difference. We could always feel the love and pride he had for his family. We are praying for your family at this difficult time and pray your precious memories of your husband and Dad will comfort you, knowing how very, very much he loved each of you, and that he is at home with his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Dear Mrs. Williams, Phillip, Kim & Toby - It saddens my heart to hear of your loss and wish that I could be there today. Mr. Williams was such a special husband & father to all of you, as well as friend to many. And, I have always considered each of you part of my family! Upon hearing the news, I shared with Mom some great stories about his personality & character that were so fondly remembered. He knew how to make you laugh! I will never forget the many warm memories and hugs that he so willingly gave, as well as the wonderful advice he had on any subject matter. He was always a welcomed face and smile; he will be missed. Though I cannot imagine the hurt at this time, I consider it a blessing to have known him and to know each one of you. We will be praying in the days ahead that God brings you a peace with each new moment. We love you and know that his legacy will be carried on in each of you. God Bless, Courtney###imported-begin##Courtney Collier-Tolbert###imported-end##
