Mary Beatrice Fleisher

FEB 12, 1925 - MAY 24, 2010

Mary Beatrice "Bea" Fleisher died peacefully in the presence of her family on Monday, May 24. She was born Feb. 12, 1925, near Bernice, La., to William Jesse and Bertha Lee Tabor Fomby. After graduating from Bernice High School and business school in Ruston, Bea joined the WAVES during World War II. While stationed in Kingsville, she met and married Oscar Fleisher on Feb. 16, 1945. After moving to Longview, Bea kept busy raising five children. In later years she enjoyed working for Dillard's.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Oscar, brothers, Marvin, W.L., James; and sister, Doris. Survived by her son, Harvey, and wife, Vicky, Houston; son, David, and wife, Dede, Tyler; daughter, Karen, Arlington; daughter, Sheryl, and husband, Gordon, Princeton; son, Steve, Longview; six grandchildren, Laura, Jenni, Brian, Matthew, Scott and Rachel; two great-grandchildren, David and Melanie; brother, Robert, Monroe, La.; sisters, Evelyn, Monroe, and Tressie, Alexandria, La. Bea was a traditional Southern lady who will be missed by all who knew her.

Visitation will be 6-8 p.m., Wednesday, May 26, with services at noon, Thursday, May 27, at the chapel of Rader Funeral Home in Longview. Interment will be at Lakeview Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

Dear Fleisher Family! am sorry that I was not able to attend Mary's service. Sheryl, it was nice seeing you yesterday at the house. Mary was a delight to work with at Dillard's. She always made my day a little brighter. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you during this time. I am grateful to have known Mary. Nancy

I am so sorry for your loss. Aunt Bea was such a special lady. I remember her as always being so pretty and elegant. And always laughing. Grandma would always get so excited when Tootie was coming. My mom told the story the other day of Aunt Bea giving her her first crayons and coloring book. That is her favorite memory of her sister. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. Aunt Tressie and Debbie Debbie Upshaw
