Dear friends, the learning of Jimmy's death was a shock, and my sympathy in your loss runs deep. In the years he helped me out with so many things, I can truly say I've never known anyone more dedicated to whatever he did. We became good friends, and I sorrow with you. May God bring you peace. Dearest Aunt Linda and family:I just heard about Jimmy's passing through a family member. Please know that I am praying for you all.It's amazing how I can so clearly see his face when we were young. I remember the Easter egg hunts and baseball games in the pasture at grandma and grandpas house. And getting yelled at by grandma to stop slamming the screen door or to stop trampling on her flowerbeds. I'll always treasure those fixed moments of time in my heart. They'll always be there. Memories are a gift from God. And I know you all have many of Jimmy. God bless each and every one of you.Love Your niece and cousinVickie###imported-begin##Vickie Wallace Freeman###imported-end##
