To the Family of Loraine Day Borders.Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. It is hard to lose a parent. Edwin lost his dad, Travis Parr on April 8, 2010. Edwin and Marcus's parents followed them throughout their school years at Pine Tree, Boy Scouts, and all their activities. Brent, we will be thinking of you and your family.Edwin and Cheryl Walters Parr##imported-begin##Cheryl Walters Parr##imported-end##

Brent, I was sorry on hearing about the passing of your mom. It is never easy losing a parent. I still have the cookbook that your mom gave Ken and I for a wedding present. Marcus and I were classmates from the 6th grade on. My family and I are keeping you in our prayers. Janice and Kenneth Norris##imported-begin##Janice Hayes Norris##imported-end##

Mrs Loraine was a wonderful, delightful lady. I was honored to know and care for her as a Nurse over the past few years. She was always smiling. When I would ask how she was, she always answered "what ya see is what ya get" I'm gonna miss that. May she never more have illness and be surrounded by the ones who have always loved her!! God bless you Mrs Loraine!!!!##imported-begin##ann##imported-end##

Grandma, I will dearly miss you very much. You left us in peace after a long beautiful life. You are free now and without any pain. My memories of you will forever mold me and remind me of how wonderful a Grandmother you were to me. Love always and forever, Gregg Borders and Family##imported-begin##Gregg Borders and Family##imported-end##
