I have been out of town, so I didn't learn of Lillian's passing until last night. She was a dear, sweet lady, always smiling. The quilting ladies will miss her much. Having lost my mother last December I know this is a very difficult time for you and I am so sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Karin Thomas##imported-end##

I don't remember ever meeting Lillian, but I was Anna Virginia Kilpatrick Smith's daughter. I lost my mom in December, then my husband in August. I know the loss you all are feeling right now. My prayers are with you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Virginia Tiger##imported-end##

The ancients had a special saying reserved for those who consistently and effortlessly personified Godly characteristics. When such a person entered the room, they would announce, "Make way for the presence of God."Such a person was Lillian. She was one in whom God's Spirit dwelt richly and we are forever blessed for having known her. We will miss the kindness of her spirit and the sweetness of her smile.Our most heartfelt condolences to Lillian's family - how she loved you! And our love to Lillian's "sister", Ruth.##imported-begin##Phillip and Carol Fenton##imported-end##
