Marshall Edwin Ed Dooley

Marshall Edwin Ed Dooley was born March 17, 1927 in Hillsboro, Texas and passed away Wednesday September 29, 2010 in Longview. Ed served his country as a medical Technician in the Air Force during World War II.

He worked as a printer and retired from The Dallas Morning News in 1986. After retirement, he moved to Longview and spent his days playing Golf and Pool. Ed loved to cook his specialty was banana pudding.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his daughter Sandra Gayle Dooley.

Survivors include his wife of 59 years, Jessie Ritter Dooley, son, Dr. Glenn Dooley and wife Cynthia, daughters, Mrs. Marcia Thomas and Mrs. Lisa Ashley and husband Mike, grandsons, Kenny Dooley, Clayton Dooley, William McDowell, Brian Thomas and Nathan McCall, Sergio Cruz, Esteban Cruz, and five great-grandchildren.

He was a member of the Tanneyhill Masonic Lodge.

We would like to thank Dr. Saikin, Dr. Shea, Dr. Schottstaedt, and their staff for the care they gave Ed during his illness, and also Brenda Johnson of Pine Tree Lodge for her hugs and sweet smile.

Memorial contributions may be made to Beacon Hospice at 5016 Gilmer Road Longview, Texas 75608

Funeral services will be held at Two O'clock Monday October 4, 2010 at the Chapel of Rader Funeral Home 1617 Judson Road with Chaplain Reverend David Badders officiating. Interment

My condolences to the entire Dooley family. Mr. Dooley touched many in and around the Longview area. I was blessed with his company many days around the pool table. We shared many stories and I considered him a true friend. I'll miss you Dooley.##imported-begin##Tony Compton##imported-end##
