Miss Sue was a blessing, she had been a customer of mine for along time. I will truley miss her beautiful smile. She also was a good friend of my daughter Kilie Mason. God be with you family in this sad time , but it is a peace to known she is with our Jesus!##imported-begin##Kim Kay##imported-end##

What can I say, Sue was a wonderful, funny lady. I loved her so much. Just last Saturday night she told me that she was "chasing me"she caught me around the sanctuary before the Christmas program to promise me she would be back at choir on Wednesday night.I have been harrassing her nonstop since she "retired" from the choir a few months ago. I kept telling her that I would pray her back to choir and she told me that it worked. Well wednesday night she was in the heavenly choir!! Sue, I will miss you more than you will know. I LOVE YOU!!!##imported-begin##Sheli Kipp##imported-end##

May God's grace and peace fill your hearts.My heart also hurts as I miss Sue. We were Precept Bible Study students together and Sue was a very special friend and lady who loved the Lord. Dear family, Sue is very much loved and will be missed by so many people for whom she has been a joyful living testimony of the love of God.##imported-begin##Connie Douty##imported-end##
