Jack, I was so sorry to read about Ramona's passing. She was such an AWESOME lady! When I read her obituary, I had to smile when it mentioned her love of the Civic Theatre. Coincidentally, today I start my theatre class this summer at SMU. I'm dedicating this one to Ramona! She will be missed, but, oh, just think about how happy and healthy she is now! Love and prayers to all of the family. Hope to see you all soon.Shalom,Jan and Roger Spann##imported-begin##Jan Spann##imported-end##

Jack, Kent and Mark,Besides being such a loyal christian church member and very family oriented, I especially will remember three things about Ramona I will treasure forever:1. Her heartfelt and sincere prayers2. Always the very best food she would bring to church and especially Presbyterian Women,3. The beautiful clothes she wore and she always said "compliments of Jack." She was so proud of them.My love goes out to each of you with prayers and concern for the days to come. Jane##imported-begin##jane fahle##imported-end##

Jack, I remember "Mona Gaye" as my beautiful, sophisticated, and intelligent cousin. It was such a surprise to see her sitting behind me at the New London Memorial reunion a few years ago, and she hadn't a bit. I am so sorry that she is no longer with you, but I know that she is surrounded now by cousins, aunts, uncles, and her loving parents, Aunt Zell and Uncle Doc. Our family sends our love and prayers for you and your family.##imported-begin##Kaleta Lynn Mitchell Smith##imported-end##

Mr. Clark, We haven't seen each other in years and you may not remember me, but when I saw the article in the paper about Mrs. Clark, I wanted you to know that I remember her as always being so kind. I always enjoyed visiting with you both when you came to Longview to shop at Skaggs, now Albertsons where I work. I am very sorry for your loss and my prayers are with you and your family at this time.##imported-begin##Ruth Kay##imported-end##
