I am still reeling a bit from the news of your departure Steve, and I know I will miss your visits down here. I will treasure the memories I have of you, how much you loved your friends, your nieces and nephews, your generous and loving heart. But, I will rejoice in the peace you have now, free of pain, free of worry. Til we see you again, Steve.###imported-begin##Kim Hoesl###imported-end##

Just got a call from a Henderson friend. Steve was my nephew. His father John Elbert Nanny was my brother. He was sadly killed in a car accident when Steve was a one year old beautiful little boy. Steve entertained Margaret his mother and I royally at the Adams Mark Hotel in Houston where he worked back in the 80's. Steve was a wonderful friend and nephew! You and Margaret are now together in heaven. I'll miss you.##imported-begin##Jackie Nanny Painter##imported-end##
