Malcolm M. Baushke

FEB 24, 1916 - JUL 17, 2011

Services for M.M. "Mac" Baushke, 95, of Longview will be held in the Rader Funeral Home Chapel in Longview at 10 a.m. Wednesday, July 20, 2011. Burial will follow at Lakeview Memorial Gardens. Mr. Baushke passed away Sunday, July 17, 2011 at home in his Colonial Village apartment. He was born February 24, 1916 in Coloma, Michigan where he lived until moving to Longview in 1952.

Mr. Baushke was preceded in death by his wife Mildred and his daughter Janice. He is survived by his daughter Maxine and his son Duane and wife Judy; grandchildren Maureen, Susan, Jennifer and husband Lee, Jamie; and five great grandchildren. Mac was a World War II veteran serving as a carpenter's mate in the Navy, in the Asiatic Pacific.

When Mr. Baushke was 10 years old, he dragged his father from a live power wire, saving his life. His father lost an arm in the accident, was badly burned and would have surely died except for Malcolm's bravery. Mr. Baushke was a carpenter by trade and also a volunteer fireman. He took care of his family first, but his great love of fishing and hunting was impressive. Mr. Baushke was known for helping others and was considered a mentor by many.

Mr. Baushke will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Duane and family. So sorry to see of the passing of your father, know that you will miss him. Have occasion to pass by Graham Street and still think of all of the Baushke family. We still have shutters that your dad did for us in our den. God's blessings to you and your family.##imported-begin##Brian Whitenack##imported-end##

Maxine, You have my deepest sympathy on the loss of your dad. Mark held a great deal of respect for him and talked with him often, and especially on Veteran's Day and Memorial Day to thank him for his service to our country. I know he will be missed by his children, grandchildren and friends. To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die. ~Thomas Campbell, "Hallowed Ground"##imported-begin##Kathy Franklin##imported-end##

Duane and family- It is with deep sorrow and regret that we learned the passing of your dear father. My memories of him being at your home growing up in Longview were with warm regard and sincere fondness. His quiet demeanor and brevity of comment never lacked meaning and profound wisdom. As a homebuilder I appreciate the days and ways of that craft and remember seeing him off to work each day in his bib overalls and said later in life "that is what a homebuilder truly is". I hope these words give you comfort and peace as with my last conversation with you your Dad lived his life to the fullest. The Montgomerys##imported-begin##John Montgomery##imported-end##

Dear Maxine, I am sorry for the loss of your father. I know what a good father and man your dad was to your family and ours. My dad, Curtis, thought of him as a father and truly respected him as a man. Mr. Mack will be missed and my prayers will be with you. Love, Rory.##imported-begin##Rory Powell##imported-end##
