Maritza and I use to be best friends when we were younger,growing up in jasper,texas. We both had our babies around the same time and i remember someone telling me that our babies were the happiest babies they've seen. This tradgedy has had its impact on me.I've prayed for mitza everyday. You are still my sister by heart. I always admired her families closeness so i know they are gonna be okay. I love you guys. You will remain in my prayers##imported-begin##LaSasha Cooper##imported-end##

My thoughts prayers are with you all in the loss of precious little Jayden. I pray that not only does God give his peace that passes all understanding, but that he will keep you in that peace in the days to come. Please know that God is a very present help, so look to the hills for all your help because God is willing and more than able. Thinking of you in your time of grief.. My heart goes out to all of you. I remember you guys coming to the house and Jayden would want to play with "Cooper", and Cooper would jump on him and Jayden would just smile that beautiful smile and let Cooper do.. We love y'all and are praying that you find peace and comfort in the coming days..."The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit".
