Robert The Cobert The Big Fat Cobert --- who is going to pick on me now that you are gone? Funny thing about you is that you would pick without mercy, but I always knew that if anybody else tried to pick on me or hurt me, you would be there in an instant to defend me. After all, I was your baby sister.Love you, Bro. I will miss you.Cheryl The Barrell From Carroll###imported-begin##Cheryl Toohey##imported-end##

Uncle Bobo...you are going to be missed!! I never went a year without a phone call from you on my birthday - you never forgot and it was also great catching up! Going out to the country was always a worthwild trip and our kids still love talking about Uncle Bobo and all his machines he drives. You gave us several pictures of Backhoes and tractors and Tristan still looks at them....what boy doesnt like that stuff! You are in my prayers and in my heart...With LOVE always!###imported-begin##Kelly Prier##imported-end##

Brother Bob, I feel so fortunate that you decided to settle down so close to me in East Texas. I was so impressed at the way you carried out your dream of clearing your own land to put your home. I already miss my visits to the country, sitting on your porch waiting for the hummingbirds to come, exchanging books to read, going to those $1 movies then eating frog legs and catfish afterwards. Love Always.....##imported-begin##Linda AHrens##imported-end##

Bobo heres to you, the king of noogies, thanks for all the good times. I especially remember the one fourth of july we were at your house setting off fireworks, and guess who decides to sneak around the backside of the house with a shotgun and shows us how fireworks are really done, good ole Bobo. love you, miss you and your always with me. P.S. tell Grandpa and Sue hi for me...##imported-begin##Jason Ahrens##imported-end##

Extending my heartfelt sympathy to the entire Ohde Family as you say goodbye to your brother, brother-in-law, and uncle. I remember fondly the many overnight stays at the Ohde home with Robert always finding a way to listen in on our 'girl' conversations despite the many times his presence was exposed! He certainly never gave up. And now, he is listening in on the angelic voices proclaiming "Holy, Holy, Holy" before the throne of God. He has seen and heard the voice of Jesus, his Savior. We will all be looking forward to seeing Robert again! With Love, Janet###imported-begin##Janet Schachtner Raatikka###imported-end##
