My deepest condolences to all the family and friends of George. I worked with George early in his career at SUPERVALU and I always had a soft spot in my heart for him. There is no doubt it was his warmth and natural leadership that impressed me as I watched him grow in his roles. We did have contact over the years but really lost touch as his career at Kroger grew, but I always was aware of what George was doing in the industry through my network. George was one of those special people in the world!##imported-begin##Mike Jackson##imported-end##

Sorry to hear of your loss. Something to remember.....Everyone must have time to grieve?. So cry now and even tomorrow. As time goes on the days get a little easier to bear without our loved one and the sadness exists a little less. And eventually, the memories start to fill your heart with joy. Always remember that sadness and joy can't exist in your heart at the same time. So may George's memories bring your family much peace and joy.##imported-begin##Levolia Burton##imported-end##

Dear Palmer family I am deeply sorrowed by the loss of your husband, father and son. I have had the pleasure of working with George the past few years, most recently on the Kroger account. I was blessed to have known George and appreciated his gentleness and patience as well as his sense of humor. I will miss him as will the rest of the 1SYNC/GS1 family and the Kroger family. This week I was at the Kroger's office and the team there had a picture of George on his cubicle window with "George - you will be truly missed". I have uploaded this picture for you.
