Warren Bradley

OCT 30, 1956 - NOV 20, 2011

Warren Bradley was born on October 30th, 1956 in Longview, Texas to Byron and Doris Bradley. He went to be with his Lord and Savior November 20th, 2011. He is survived by his parents; a sister Barbara and her husband Ron Nelms; three nieces, Kristi, Lori, Johanna and their families. Numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and many, many friends.

Warren was a well known entertainer and radio personality. He entertained us all with his celebrity impersonations, his birthday wake-up calls, and his witty sense of humor. He was an avid Detroit Tiger Fan who hadn't missed a Tiger game in Arlington in over 30 years. He was rarely seen not wearing his famed Tiger cap. He will be missed by his family and friends. "He was so loved."

In lieu of flowers the family asks that donations be made to Texas Home Health Hospice. 500 East Loop 281 Longview, Texas 75605.

Services will be on Wednesday November 23, 2011 at 2:00PM at Macedonia Baptist Church. A memorial book is available to sign at Rader Funeral Home in Longview. No visitation is scheduled.

So sorry to learn about Warren passing away last year. He was such a funny man & loved his wake up calls...I met him several times at various functions when I lived in the Longview area & his personality was always shining. I loved to hear who his recent celeb photo was with & he inspired me to start doing the same. Rest in Peace Warren & keep the Angels in stitches. To Warren's family and friends,I knew Warren for many years and always enjoyed visiting with him. He pursued his dreams and shared his talent with everyone and anyone who would give him the moment. I always enjoyed his wake up calls on KYKX. He tried it on me once and I said, "Warren get off my phone", and he just laughed and said I was no fun. Glen Campbell, The Fugitive, the Tigers, and the Academy Awards are just a few of his passions. I bet he has Peppy Blount in stitches right now.
