Jeff, Mary Ann, Ryan and Anna,We are so sorry to hear about the loss of Mr. Green. We know there are many praying for you and your family. I was thinking how he is now up there with Jon's sweet mother, who just passed away a few weeks ago. They are in God's presence now and without any worries, fears, or pain. Mr. Green is now one of those in "the great cloud of witnesses!" We love each of you and will be praying for you. You are a very special family to us. I graduated with Melanie, and wish to let you all know that I am praying for you all as you process this transition in life. I've been there with a husband, and am facing it again with my father. I pray that a lifetime of happy memories and the knowledge of where your husband, "Daddy", brother, uncle, brother-in-law and grandfather is now, will bring peace to your hearts. And I pray that you will lean hard upon our Father, who is with you at all times, to comfort you and help you move through the pain of missing your loved one as you find your new "normal" without his earthly presence. And know that he will be one among many family members and friends in Heaven with open arms to welcome you when it's your time to "come home". Mrs. Green, Mary Ann & Jeff, Ryan and Anna, and family, My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. I will always remember the time Mr. Green drove me & Hunter to the ER when Hunter cut his finger, helped finish installing a door knob, looking at strange bugs on the fence. I am sure there are more to remember. What wonderful, kind neighbors you and Mr. Green were. And I am so thankful for The Thomas family now I love you all and pray that God will give you comfort as only He is able.##imported-begin##Amy Timmons##imported-end##
