George William Moody

DEC 14, 1945 - FEB 27, 2012

George William Moody went home on Monday, February 27, 2012. At the time of his passing, George was surrounded by friends and family who loved him including his two daughters, sister and grandsons.

George was born December 14, 1945 in Clarksburg, West Virginia to Grafton William Moody and Nadine Tinney Moody. George moved to Texas as an infant. For over 40 years, George worked in the East Texas area in the banking business. George was currently the President of White Oak State Bank in White Oak, Texas. George was also President of Bloomberg State Bank in Bloomberg, Texas. George has also owned The Butcher Shop in Longview, Texas for 28 years. George is survived by his two daughters and sons in law, Tina Moody and Tim Bryan of Longview, Texas, Gina Moody and Adam Burton of Ore City, Texas, a sister, Linda Moody Lewis of Ore City, Texas, two grandsons, William Garrett Burton and Jacob Cole Burton of Ore City, Texas and two nephews, Gregory Keith Lewis and William Bradley Lewis of Ore City, Texas. While his numerous business successes were due to his dedicated hard work, it was secondary when it came to his family, especially his two grandsons. All other appointments were canceled when it came to his more important occupation of being a "Paw Paw."

George was preceded in death by his parents.

Supporting local charitable organizations was a desire of George. Many times, his generous contributions were never known.

Special thanks and recognition from the family go to George's dedicated caregivers on staff at Baylor Hospital, Dallas and Good Shepherd Medical Center, Longview. Furthermore the family recognizes that George's daughters and sister never left his side during his illness.

Arrangements have been made through Rader Funeral Home of Longview, Texas. Visitation will be held at Rader Chapel, 1617 Judson Road, Longview, Texas from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm on Thursday, March 1, 2012. At his request graveside only services will be held at Ebenezer Cemetery on FM Road 557, in Pittsburg, Texas on Friday, March 2, 2012 at 2:00 pm.

Donations can be made to the Humane Society of the United States, www.humanesociety.org

Gina and Tina, I met George through Lavonne Woodruth back in the early 80's. She and I taught together in Garland. I came to Longview quite a bit and met the two of you. You probably do not remember me, but I do remember the two of you. George was so proud of you girls and he had every reason to be. I was heading to Longview tomorrow and thought I would google his name. I was so saddened to hear of his passing. I have thought of him so much over the years. We had several dates and he even came to Dallas and took me out a few times. He was one of the most handsome and classiest men I had ever met. I loved my time with him and he always treated me with such respect. He was quite the catch. He was such a fun and crazy guy to be around. True, as one of the comments said, he was larger than life. His laugh and antics were contagious and you just wanted to be around him. He just never took himself too serious and he was such an example for all who knew him. I just loved my chapter with him and will always cherish that time. So sorry for your loss and just so wished I had kept up with him over the years. Thinking of you both tonight and just wanted to let you know how sorry I am. I was so hoping to find him in Longview. I am sure he is there in spirit. Take care and just know you are in my prayers. He was the best and I feel so grateful to have known him. ##imported-begin##Nancy Maxwell ##imported-end##

Papa, we have so many memories that we will never forget. I always remember spending every weekend at your house with Jake and listening to you go on and on about how we were going to stop spending the night when we got older, even though we all knew we would still be over there everytime we could. You were the best grandpa I could ask for and in a way you were a best friend to me and Jake. We will always miss you until we see you again in Heaven, and we will never forget our Papa. ##imported-begin##Garrett Burton ##imported-end##

George could both play a joke and take a joke. I called him up on a Monday after he won Upshur County Conservation Rancher of the Year, disguised my voice, and listed several hilariously funny of course, untrue reasons why we were taking the award back! He gave me my first real estate loan after my divorce. I asked to borrow the money and he asked me how much? I told him I wasn't sure, whatever it appraised for. He said "Have I got an appraiser for you!" and we both busted out laughing! Probably the last 7 years of my dad's life, my family with lots of high chair babies ate breakfast every Sunday morning after mass at the Butcher Shop. One of my sister's friends worked there. When she told him, he said "There's one family that comes every Sunday, and we pretty much have to wet vac the floors after they leave!" Sorry about that George.##imported-begin##Maria Campbell Mills##imported-end##

I count it a privilege to have known and been friends with George for almost 60 years. He was an original who took life by the horns, did it his way, and made it work. Although he became hugely successful and loaded with responsibility, he remained one of the most enjoyable people to be around I have ever known. Where ever he was there was laughter.Perhaps more importantly he was a true friend with a great big heart. He helped me and many others succeed in life. Whether it was a business or personal issue he was always there to help.I remember hundreds of experiences with George but I don't remember a bad one. From performing a Man-on-the-Street comedy routine with him for the March of Dimes in the 5th grade to traveling together in Mexico 50 years later, they were all good.I am very sad at his passing. Without him, I don't know where I would have turned, many times. I had the privilege to work with George when he began his banking career in Avinger, and he remained a dear and loyal friend for forty years. George could bring humor to any situation; always make you smile, and his laughter often made my day. I pray God's Grace and peace on all the family members, and may The Lord grant each of you the vision of His Eternal Realities. Jack and Betty##imported-begin##Jack and Betty Moore##imported-end##

George was my boss some 30+ years ago, then he became our banker, and over the years became a valued friend. His knowledge of financial matters, his sharp wit, and most of all his generous heart will be so very much missed by so many of us. The family is in our prayers.##imported-begin##Cheryl Blue##imported-end##
