Philip E. Allbright

JAN 31, 1933 - JUN 29, 2012

On June 29, 2012, the world lost a jack-of-all-trades: a loving husband, supportive father, fun grandfather, no-nonsense father-in-law, loyal son, brother, uncle, poker-buddy, neighbor, practical joker, hunter, fisherman, builder, auto-mechanic, antique collector, handy-man, and all around fine person. Philip Eugene Allbright was born on January 31, 1933, in Longview, Texas, to Luella and Harry Lee Allbright, Sr. He graduated from Longview High School in 1950, attended Kilgore Junior College, and served in the Army during the Korean War from 1953 - 1955. He worked at Texas Eastman for almost forty years, and retired in 1994. Philip was a member of Elmira Chapel Cumberland Presbyterian Church and belonged to the Pythian Lodge and D.O.K.K.E.s.

Philip was met in heaven by his mother, Luella Allbright who we are certain greeted him with his favorite pound cake, his father, Harry Allbright, Sr., his younger brother, George Allbright, and his favorite bird dog, Rex. He leaves behind with precious memories his wife of 58 years, Bonnie Allbright, three daughters, Jan Allbright husband Richard Bunn, Joan Togami husband Nobuo Togami, and Jeana Lungwitz husband Kevin Lungwitz, as well as five grandchildren who knew him and loved him as "Poppa": Bryce Bunn, Jordan Togami, Jerick Togami, Erin Lungwitz, and Claire Lungwitz who are all the smartest grandchildren who ever lived, according to Philip. Philip will be remembered for his keen sense of humor, cheerleading at his grandchildren's ballgames, graduations, and music recitals, his practicality, his Tuesday poker games, his smart business sense, his passion for garage sales and bargains, his addiction to good desserts, his respect for the great outdoors, his engineering skills, his knack for creating mischief, his never-met-a-stranger attitude, but most of all, for his unwavering devotion to his family.

Special thanks to Dr. Slone, Allison, Dusty, Alison, Shenling, Tori, Spencer, Earl, and the other excellent nurses at Good Shepherd Hospital, as well as Drs. Holder,

Bonnie, I have a feeling he and Jerry are having a pow wow now about who caught the biggest fish. I know I have told you about this, but maybe your daughters will like it. When litter barrels first became popular on the side of the road, he and Jerry was on the way to the lake to go fishing, and Phil turned around in the middle of the road. Jerry asked.."Where are you going?" He said "I'm going to see that little bear in that barrel." They had a lot of fun hunting and fishing together. He was a great friend. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of the family during this hard time.Billie##imported-begin##Billie Matin##imported-end##

Carl and I are saddened to hear about the death of your loving husband, father, and grandfather. Mr. Albright was such a supportive father of his daughters, Jan, Joan, and Jeana, when I taught them at Pine Tree Elementary School. We renewed our association with the Albright family when the girls came to Baylor, and again when we moved to Temple. Please know you will be in our thoughts and prayers as you celebrate the life of this great Christian man.##imported-begin##Becky Bradley##imported-end##
