So sad to hear of his passing. He was such a great individual and dedicated to making sure to provide a part of himself to the residents of Longview and East Texas so they would have something enjoy from his families' dinner table. He carried the torch as far as he could and has received noteworthy praise for having done so. May God Bless and Strengthen the entire Cace family in the days, weeks, and months to come. God Bless each and every one of you.##imported-begin##J. Edward##imported-end##

Cathy and family. Only 3 short weeks ago we were sitting and laughing at your restaurant sharing old fishing tales and remembering Gerard's Father. What a shock to hear of Gerard's passing. I am so glad to hear that he was fishing and with his daughter--a hidden blessing. When my father passed at the eulogy I spoke of fishing and that Dad always said I was still too young to go out in the Gulf, when he passed he once again told me I was still too young to join him on his trip. I was left waiting on the dock until my time arrives. We are left behind with love and memories to help us through difficult times. You are blessed to have so many to share. All our love and sympathy, Gary and Beth Tyler, Texas##imported-begin##Dr. and Mrs. Gary Spence##imported-end##

To all of the Cace family, All too soon another of the great human beings has left us. No words can heal a wound so fresh as this. When the shadow of sadness falls across your heart, illuminate it with the memories of joy and laughter that Gerard spread so abundantly. He was loved by many, but none as deeply as you.##imported-begin##D. and Sam Noble##imported-end##
