Donald Wayne Anderson

MAY 30, 1947 - SEP 3, 2012

Donald Wayne Anderson, 65, of Longview, Texas, departed this life for glory on Monday, September 3, 2012.

He was born May 30, 1947, in Charleston, South Carolina, the third of three sons born to Walter and Lillian Anderson. He was preceded in death by his parents and his older brother, Walter William Anderson.

He is survived by his loving wife of 41 years, Kiyoko Anderson; his brother Wesley Anderson and wife, Jolene, of Longview; his son Andy Anderson, and wife Lisa, his daughter Connie Anderson, and his son Tony Anderson, all of Connecticut; his granddaughter Desirae Duran, his grandson Tyler Anderson, and his granddaughter Chloe Anderson.

Donald Anderson proudly served his country as a U.S. Army intelligence specialist during the Vietnam Era. He worked as a computer programmer, and lived in Hawaii, California, and for the last nine years, in Longview Texas.

Mr. Anderson was a testimony to his Baptist faith, and found comfort and joy in songs celebrating Christ. His passion for music also included writing, singing, and strumming his guitar to the songs of the 50's and 60's.

Memorial services will be held at 12 p.m. Saturday, September 8, 2012, in the Chapel of Rader Funeral Home of Longview. The family requests memorials to New Beginnings Baptist Church, 2137 E. I am Don's cousin and grew up with him in Charleston, SC. We are only a few months apart in age so we often engaged in family activities together--Sundays at grandmama's house, trips to Hampton Park with Uncle Wilbur. Mostly I remember and enjoyed Don, Wesley, and Billy playing their guitars and singing for the entertainment of the rest of us. The song I liked most was "Sounds of Silence." Even Simon and Garfunkel never did it any better. Love you, Don, and see you later.##imported-begin##Glenda York##imported-end##
