Jackie is so sorry that he could not make it to Aunt Goldie service he could not get off the boat and had no one to replace him. But his heart was with the family. And he will miss asking about her when he calls the family. He sends his thoughts and prayers. From the few times I met her she was very sweet to everyone that was around her. She will be missed by all but the one thing we know is that she is with Uncle James and Mike they are all together again. Jackie & Carolyn

Aunt Goldie would take turns with us boys. One week I would get to go home with her, next week Deanie would. She would ride over on her bicycle and plop me in the basket and away we would go. Next week it would be Deanie. We loved Aunt Goldie. I was asked to be a Pall Bearer and was unable to accept because I can't walk and tote a load. My lungs are too far gone. I am sorry Auntie, Erwin
