Ruby Jo. My third first cousin gone. The nearest to me in age. I hardly knew Ruby until we were in an English class together at Kilgore College. We were 27, and both getting a late start. After that class I only saw her once in a while around the campus, and only in passing. Then, years passed and I saw her at my father's funeral. I had heard about Laura Shae. That was a tragedy, and one I guess Ruby just couldn't bear. My sympathy goes to all who were close to JoJo. She's irreplaceable.##imported-begin##Steve Stone##imported-end##

I am so sad to hear about Ruby. She was always so sweet to me and my son. Our kids grew up together, so I've know her a long time. She always supported and cheered on all the kids. We all knew how her heart was broken.##imported-begin##Jeannie Palmer##imported-end##

So shocked and saddened to hear about Ruby Jo. We were both on the monkey bars in 4th grade when I thought she was the prettiest girl in school. Later on, we ended up going to the senior graduation party together. There will always be a special place in my heart for her. Rest in peace, sweet Ruby Jo. Kissin' Cousin, Friend & Classmate.. Ruby, you held my hand tightly & let me cry on your shoulder too many times to count, during some of my darkest days, ending every cry with hope & a smile. I know you're dancing in Heaven with Laurie today, with a brilliant smile on your face. Ps 30:11. You will be missed, & always remembered for all the love & comfort you gave to me & others. I am blessed to call you friend. Debbie, you are in my prayers & on my heart. May God wrap his loving arms tightly around you & your family, & give you strength & peace.##imported-begin##Tonia Belk##imported-end##
