Its been over five years since you've passed.. I can't believe it's been that long. I miss you. Your laughs, your sense of humor, even your temper. Hell i think i get it from dads side of the family. There's not a day that goes by where I don't miss you. You are always going to be on my mind, and one day, when i take my last breath that's when i get to see you again. I remember like it was yesterday. Life hasn't been the same without you, but i know you are in heaven watching over all of us. So much has went on, poppy. I love you. ~Your granddaughter, Britni.

We will always miss you but I still can't beleve your gone. It seems like just yesterday you were showing me your fake million dollar bill and telling me you were never broke because you always had a million dollar bill in your pocket. Even though your gone I know you are still here with us. ##imported-begin##Britton ##imported-end##

Dad you were the glue that held us together. You had more heart than anyone I've ever known. It was only fitting that god called you home on April fool's day, I'm sure He's loving your sense of humor and wit as much as we did. We miss and love you###imported-begin###Chris Barnes###imported-end###
