Dear Kim , Kay and families, I was so sorry to of Eloise's passing. I was so fortunate to have attended Longview First Assembly for 21 years and counted Eloise as one of my best friends. She was older than I and therefore was the chauffeur for MANY outings - whether going to church meetings around the area and especially Chalk Hill where our girls from church felt we had a special ministry to win the young people for The Lord especially the boys, going to C.A.meetings, gospel quartet singings, swinging bridge, A&W, Dairy Queen, Manck's Cafe for pie, Caddo Lake for catfish, slumber parties, and "tooling"around town and LeTourneau campus looking for boys. As you can see we had a "varied" and wide ministry. She was such a remarkable Christian example for me and I will always treasure her memory and our special times together. She came from such a lovely family - her mother, father and brothers hold such a revered place in my heart. She will be missed. Eloise will be so missed by all who knew her. She was such a sweet and fun loving person. My mother, Mary Alice McGowan, now has Alzheimer's but started to cry when she heard about the death of this wonderful niece who she loved so much. Eloise was my cousin. I remember when her girls were babies and she let my sister and I baby-sit them. What beautiful little girls they were. Eloise always made us laugh. She was just so much fun to be around. My deepest sympathy any prayers go out to her two beautiful daughters, her grandchildren and her brothers.##imported-begin##Peggy & Don Wiesner##imported-end##
