May Catherine Theresa Adkins RIP, the loss of death is never easy. The now void of a sure hug or even a kiss now all of sudden not there can be so painful but not hopeless, please be assured as His word says, "so my word that goes forth from my mouth will prove to be..." Christina, I just heard about your mom and wanted to send my deepest sympathy. I am so sorry for your loss, but know in your heart she is in heaven with your sweet baby girl watching over you. Your mom was an amazing woman, and I am proud to say I had the privilege to know her! Please let me know if you need anything at all. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Big Sis you are always in my heart & thoughts. I am the luckiest Sis in the world, To have grown up next to you. We played and laughed and had fun together, A great bond that has always stayed true. I wish I could talk to you today, there are so many things we didn't get to say. I know how much you care for me, And how much I care for you. Everytime I think of you, I know you'll miss me too. And though your life on earth is through, in heaven it starts anew. You'll live for eternity, just as God promised you. And though you walked through heavens gate, we're never far apart. For everytime I think of you, you're right here in my heart. I love you Sis XOXO##imported-begin##Jeannie##imported-end##

Christina, Michelle, and all the rest of your families I am so sorry for your loss. I thought the world of your mom and believe her main priority were you two young ladies and those precious grandchildren. She was a good mom. You could tell just listening to her talk. That we did lots of she and I. My prayers and thoughts are with all of you and may God's peace comfort all of you at this time. My love to all of you.
