Rosemarie Parker

NOV 9, 1964 - OCT 24, 2013

Rosemarie Parker, 48, of Longview, TX departed this life Thursday October 24th, 2013 at Longview Regional Hospital. Funeral services will be at 11am Saturday November 2nd, 2013 at Rosewood Park Cemetery here in Longview.

Arrangements are by Rader Funeral Home in Longview.

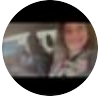

Rosemarie was born in Jersey City, New Jersey. As time went by she then moved to Texas and started her family where she ended up becoming a life-long resident. Rosemarie was a remarkable woman and truly one of a kind. Anyone who knew Rosemarie couldn't help but fall in love with her out going and charming personality. She loved life so much, but most of all loved her family and animals. A golden heart stopped beating that day and God broke our hearts to prove to us he only takes the best. To have known Rosemarie was a true blessing and she will be missed by so many.

Rosemarie was preceded in death by her mother Annamarie Hanlon, her sister Suzanne Voss and her brother Mark Hanlon. She is survived by two daughters; Jacqueline Hanlon and Heather Broughton, two sons; Roy and Brandon Parker, and her husband David Broughton. She is also survived by her brother Michael Hanlon and sister Gloria Hanlon, and her nephew Bobby Voss and nieces; Crystal Voss and Christina Pabon.

Aunt Rose, I met you September 1, 2013 and I lost you October 24, 2013. I know I wasn't as close to you as the rest of the family, but I like to think that our daily texting made up for a lot of it. I miss you everyday Aunt Rose, save a spot for me. Love, Selina Womack
