Teresa Richey lit a candle in honor of Clayton .

Clayton would come to my house and eat. He was friends with my Girls. Ivy leppert and Stephanie Davis. Clayton would call me mother Teresa. He was as one of my children that came and went. I am proud to say I knew him and talked with him just a few weeks ago. I am very saddened with this. Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of His saints. Psalm 116:15

We were saddened to hear the news of Clayton. I graduated from Pine Tree with him and he is a friend no one could forget! Always so complementary to others, funny, and easy to get along with. I have not seen him in a while, but anytime I ran into him around town, he was a joy to be around. Our family is praying for a peace that surpasses all understanding as you grieve in the coming days. God Bless. The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. Psalm 34:18
