So sorry for the loss you all must feel. It has been years since I have seen any of you. This Tuesday while riding down 149 which I haven't done in many, many years I saw your house and proceeded to share with my husband "Williams Family tales". Your mother loved her boys but ....after you three she was blessed with Shelley and she became quite possibly one of the happiest women around. One of my descriptions was how vivacious your mother was when we were kids. Her smile and laughter would light up a room. You couldn't help but feel good when you were around her. I'm sure she was still that way. She sure loved life and it was contagious! My prayers are with all who loved her.Carole Gentry ShermanNorman, OK
