I will always be grateful to Clay for taking the time to share memories of my late husband with my son. Kent Phillips and Clay were friends in high school and my son loved hearing of the antics of his dad from Clay. That was like gold for him. My prayers are with all of you and I hope your faith and memories bring you comfort.

I remember Clay from junior high as I moved away after 7th grade. Clay was a sweet, kind and considerate guy. So sorry his life ended so early, but clearly, God had other plans. Was great having known Clay. May he rest in peace and the family be comforted knowing he is in a very blessed place waiting for you.

I remember spending hours rehearsing at the old LHS auditorium when we did "South Pacific" for our Spring musical. Clay was always so much fun to be around and had a decent singing voice. ;) What fun we all had back then with Mercer making us do our exercises to "get into character." Clay and I were assigned the task of lying on the stage floor and were told to "be bacon frying in a pan." i remember how silly we thought it was at the time and could not stop laughing! We both ended up being the best frying bacon....EVER! ;) Wow.....those were good times and the show was a success. Clay...you were one of a kind. RIP my friend. My thoughts go out to the Mitchell family.Bryn (Hairrel) BoatmanTulsa OK
