Jenny was an extraordinary person t talk to very smart but til had a very goofy and playful tone to her voice. Everyday i passed her in the hallway she would stop and say hi and ask how I was doing lts sad that she was taken from us at an early age. R.I.P.

John I miss our stupid conversations we had. You made my day a lot brighter. I can close my eyes and see your goofy smile. I know you are in heaven and we all have one more angel watching over us but I don't understand why you were taken.

My condolences to your family. I remember Jenny from Hewitt Elementary where she was in my son's class. I was the room parent and she would help me pass out things during class parties. She always had a big smile and a sweet nature to her. Because of her smile and kindness she always stood out. Victor Garced (Richard Garced~Hewitt Elementary)

John was an awesome young man and friend, and I will truly miss him. He was always able to make me smile and laugh, and I knew I would have a better day after seeing him. He was kind, compassionate, and always happy. I will never forget his friendly attitude, contagious smile, and jolly laugh, and I can only hope to one day be as carefree, loving, and remarkable as he was in life. I never met Jenny, but I was told she was just as remarkable as her brother. Please accept my condolences and know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

I remember I had Jenny last year in art and even though I didn't really talk to her that much, every time I did, she made me laugh. Towards the end of the year as we were drawing our castles, her and Danielle Deason would always complain to me about how they can't draw. Of course, truthfully they weren't the best, but it wasn't the worst either. I remember every time I would look at their castles I couldn't help but laugh. It wasn't that I was laughing at them, I was laughing at the fact that they both thought they were so horrible when that wasn't the case at all. Jenny would always try and persuade me to draw her castle for her, and of course I said no. If I was given the chance now, I would draw it in a heartbeat if that would've made her happy.
