Alanna Grey Tanzillo

OCT 5, 2001 - DEC 16, 2014

Alanna was born on October 5, 2001 in Longview Texas to Michael and Claire Tanzillo and was in the seventh grade at Hallsville Junior High where she was in all AP classes. She was the big sissy to Elle Claire Tanzillo, and loved playing piano and loved animals of all kinds. She loved her family and friends and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Alanna was preceded in death by her maternal grandmother, Mary Grey Parker. Those left to cherish her memory are her parents, Michael and Claire Tanzillo; her sister Elle Tanzillo; her grandparents David "Boss" and Sonny Parker, and John and Margaret Tanzillo; her great grandmother Virginia "GG" Tanzillo; many loving aunts, uncles, cousins and friends; and her pets, Duke, Duchess, Thor, Shadow and Pandora. A celebration of life for Alanna will be held at 2:30 PM Saturday, December 20, 2014 in the Chapel of Rader Funeral Home of Longview with Brother Lynn Stanford officiating. Burial will follow at Hallsville Cemetery.

Donations in Ally honor can be made to The Cat's Meow Rescue in Longview, TX at www.thecatsmeowrescue.org.

A memorial guestbook may be signed online at www.raderfh.com.

I remember back in 7th Grade in PE Ally always had a huge smile on her face. No matter what if we had to run a mile she would tell us to keep going when we felt like giving up. Ally, we're seniors now.. I wish everyday you could be here! Graduation is for you sweetheart! Rest easy! Fly High 💙

I miss ally so much she was just this smart intelligent girl me and her talked but we weren't that close but it still hurt knowing a girl I talked to had recently passed she was so nice she was there for anyone shed give you the shirt of your back I miss her so much I can't imagine the pain her parents must be going through or have gone through I must say I'm really sorry I would've traded places with her but God took an angel he took an angel to help out with the set up for the war...

I am stunned at this news that Boss just called & told me 12/27/2014! My sister, Ally's Grammy, loved her so much! Unfortunately Grammy died when Ally was just 3 yrs. old from cancer! Her one wish was that Ally would remember her! I use to hold Ally when she was a baby. She was beautiful then & had the same beautiful face of her mother Claire! My thoughts & prayers are with you Claire & I know deep down you know that! Aunt Dede & Uncle Ron Ally T. is what we called her in fourth grade. She was the perfect student. Always did what she was told. Super smart and quiet. I remember her sweet smile the most! I will continue to pray for all of you for peace and in the days ahead, and that your precious memories will somehow comfort you!

I will always remember the first time I had the opportunity to see you. Oh my, you were the spitting image of your mother! I was living in El Paso, your mother brought you over to where I lived, and you were the most sweetest young lady. You were so kind, so compassionate, and I was a total stranger to you. At the end of our time together? I was filled with richness of your grace. I know the time you spent IN this world was short, and you made an indelible impression upon me, and to those around you. You ARE so loved, will be so missed and I am thankful for the time you gave me. I wish I had more. I have known your wonderful mother for years, and she LOVES being a mother to you, and your sister. You will be missed. Thank YOU for blessing so many who came into contact with you. Much love, Ann-Marie Scott
