Dearest Dean, Sheri, Travis and Kristen, I am so sorry for your loss. I pray that God will help by giving your heart a safe place to be during this very hardest time and the rush of going through the motions calling upon you to feel like you would rather be anywhere but here. These days will pass and that will be the time for you to begin to heal your heart. God will be there even in those times you will feel so alone, Those around you that love you will be there, especially in those times when you feel frozen in your grief, they are there to be with you as you try to return to your "normal" life, but a life now without your beloved Mother and Grandmother. These words will be said to you many times as you struggle to just get thru each day, yet they are true. As long as you keep your memories of her in Your heart she will go n through you. Travis and Kristen you will one day tell your children about your Grandmother by doing this though gone from your sight she will never be gone from your hearts. . Again I am sorry for your loss, and pray for Gods comforting care will be there for you as you learn to live a different life, the one without her. With sincere sympathy and love, Angie, Skeeter & Courtney, Gavin, Landon and Luke. And Siera.

Dear TJAs you know - words can not describe the PRECIOUS person Jeanie was. I met her in 1964 while we were working at the bank together. She was always soft spoken, sweet, and caring. Everyone that knew her loved her. I have never heard an ill word spoken by Jeanie or about Jeanie. We will all miss her smiling face. My prayers go out to you and all your family. Pat Vanderwater
