Charles Jerry Eady

JUL 9, 1943 - MAY 16, 2015

Our Heavenly Father welcomed home his faithful servant, Charles Jerry Eady, 71, of Longview, on Saturday, May 16, 2015. Jerry was born July 9, 1943 in Heard Co., GA. Those left to cherish his memory are his wife of 53 years, Mary Alice Eady; his daughters Kelly Alston (Aaron), Cindi Hudson (Rocky); his sisters Joyce Sclease (Jon), and Barbara Morgan; grandchildren Macey and Atley Alston, Colby and Ty Hudson, brother-in-law Tommy Harrell, sister-in-law Margaret Harrell, many nieces and nephews. Preceded in death by his parents, Herschel and Ima Eady, loving in-laws Obie and Vicki Harrell and beloved brother-in-laws Bobby and Billy Harrell.

He was retired from Continental Can Co. after 30 years and Crosby Lebus after 17 years. Jerry was an amazing husband, father and Pawpaw. Everything was done to the best of his ability with a servant's heart. Always making sure everyone's needs were met before his own. He loved working in his yard and making sure it looked as though it came out of a magazine. Jerry loved and enjoyed his church and church family at Greggton First Baptist. If he was not at home, he could be found at his church. He was always faithful and dependable. He cherished his children and grandchildren with a heart over-flowing, and loved his wife with all of his being. I'm sure our heavenly Father has said, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

Visitation and service will be at Oakland Heights Baptist Church in Longview on Wednesday, May 20, 2015. Visitation starts at 12pm with the funeral service starting at 2pm. Burial will follow at Rosewood Park. Services are under the direction of Rader Funeral Home of Longview.

A memorial guestbook may be signed online at www.raderfh.com.

To Mary and family:Our sincere prayers are with each of you as we'll miss Jerry so much around the old car world. We always enjoyed visiting with you and him while in the 'ol 1957 Chevy Pickup, which was beautiful. Also when Jerry would come out to our shop and we'd talk about our precious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ - oh my, how he was such a witness to one and all for Jesus and His Salvation! Our comfort is KNOWING where Jerry is today, he's "dancing around Jesus' throne", praise the Lord! We love you and yours, with deepest sympathy, Keith and Donna Blanton, White Oak

Dear Mary Alice, so sorry to hear about Jerry...(I found out via Annette's post on FB). I remember him from school when you and he first starting dating, you two were so much in love and it seems that didn't change down through the years. So happy y'all had such a happy life together. You are in my prayers! Barbara Casey Hightower

Our dear sweet friend, we are so sorry for your loss, but know that Jerry is well and whole and in the merciful and loving presence of our Lord and Savior...knowing you two will see each other again one day and walk those streets of gold together. Our hearts hurt for you and yours and our thoughts and prayers are with you...we love you, Gene and Vicki

God called such a beautiful servant to be with him in his eternal home. The love that Jerry brought to all of you did not leave, for the essence of the soul lingers. They cannot escape your hearts, for it will always be there. You were blessed to have such a precious gift of love in your life. Cling to the memories of him and let them find their way to heal you all.Sonny & Sandy Miers

Our family is so thankful for the friend Jerry has been been to Vanessa and Justin (their neighbors). He showed Christ in such a real way by loving and caring about them and everyone he met. His beautiful yard was shared with them for pictures or just a time to rest after a long day. Although we didn't get to see Jerry often, we often heard of his hard work at this church and love for the Lord and others. Jerry lived a life worthy of the call of Christ.

We are very thankful to have had the opportunity to know Jerry Eady. Four years ago, we moved into the house across the street from the Eady's. He expressed kindness to us in more ways than we can list. He was an amazing neighbor and friend, and he will be missed more than words can say.

Jerry Eady or "Jerry Alice" as I sometimes got confused and called him, was truly one of a kind. He touched so many lives and he especially touched mine in a very positive Christian way. God certainly has one hard working Christian man by his side. May you rest in peace Jerry - never to be forgotten - and my love and prayers go out to the entire Eady family.

Jerry Eady was every pastor's perfect deacon. Deacon means slave or servant "table waiter" and he was certainly that. Jerry would do anything asked of him and did many more things that were not asked of him. Few knew what all Jerry did. He supported me and gave me his honest opinion on many issues. Jerry became one of my closest friends. I will dearly miss him. Kevin Bright

To the family of Jerry, I was so sad to read of Jerry's passing but, on the other hand, happy to know that one day we will see him again. He always had a smile and he loved everybody. And that hair--I was always so envious of it and I let him know every time we saw each other! Then, he would just show me that infectious grin. I am proud to have known him and my prayers are with all of the family in your time of sorrow. May God bless you all. Jim Swanson Houston, TX
