Pam, I am so sorry for your loss, I know the pain and suffering you're going through, so my heart goes out to you and the family. If ever I can help you even just lending an ear I'm a few steps away from your front door. Edith Hirth, your neighbor

My thoughts and prayers are with Stan and all those that cared for him. Stan and I graduated High School together and he and his father helped in getting me hired with Missouri Pacific back in the early 70's. He was a great friend that always had a helping hand when needed. We spent many hours riding in that beautiful Dodge Coronet that he was so proud of. Ride on Stan!

My heartfelt sympathy to Pam and all of Stan's family and friends. I never had the pleasure of meeting him, but he must have been a wonderful man to have been married to such a wonderful lady. My thoughts are with you all during this time of sorrow. Love, Sheila Saunders

Dear Pam, Andrea, Andi, This just seems surreal, you have been in my prayers off & on since hearing of Stan going home. I know my Momma, Aunt Margie & a host of others will greet him. When Momma died & I was so upset Tray was only 6 but he brought things into perspective when he said Granny got to go see God, is not that what everybody wants to do? His words stuck with me. I cannot image how heart broken you are right now, I pray God gives you peace & understanding like only He can. When I think of Stan, I can't help but smile, I loved his sense of humor & the fact that he was always ready to have a cup of coffee with you. He fit right into the family immediately and was always so good with our Mommas. Fun times on the lake are something I will cherish. Even in our last conversation on November 10th, he was harassing me, I loved it. My last text to you was pinch Stan for me. Being 1000 miles away is always harder in times like these. I hope you can feel my hugs from here. Double first cousins does not mean anything to some people, but what it means to me is you are my sister Pam. I love you guys. Karen Anne

My heart is heavy, as I write this. Pam, Andy and Aunie, I pray that God holds you and keeps you during this sorrowful time. Stanley was the kindest and sweetest man, and I know he has left you with many wonderful memories. I remember when he was born and I was always so proud of the man he became. I loved him very much. My thoughts and prayers will be with his family left behind, knowing Stanley is with God. Linda
