I remember your family from Trinity. I never had the fortune of having your Mom has a teacher. However I did your grandmother Mrs Dailey. Loved her dearly. Prayers are with your family. Patricia Ferguson Dyer

Nadyne was a very special lady and warrior for our Savior. I do not know how many years she taught my mothers Sunday School Class but it was many. All those hours of preparation and always faithful to be there. She will be greatly missed at Trinity Baptist but it is comforting to know what great reward she now is receiving in Heaven.

My prayers for Nadyne's family for the loss of this precious lady. I spent many a Sunday afternoon at her house, after church with Gloria. There's a generation of women at Trinity that showed me (and many more young people) so much love and positive influence that my heart overflows with love when I remember them. Nadyne' has always been an angel but now she truly has her wings. With respectful love, Peggy
