D onald Stanley Turner

Celebration of Life Services for Donald Stanley Turner, 83, of Longview will be held at 10:00 a.m. Thursday, May 19, 2016 in the Chapel of Rader Funeral Home of Longview with Pastor Bong Hee Han officiating. Burial will follow in Rosewood Park with military honors provided by Fort Hood, TX. The family will receive friends on Wednesday, May 18, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and 6:00 pm to 8:00 p.m. at the funeral home

Mr. Turner was born March 10, 1933 in Kikapoo, IL to Furnard and Anna Turner and passed away May 6, 2016 in a Longview hospital. His amazing spirit will live on through everyone's life that he touched.

Mr. Turner honorably served his country in the U. S. Army during the Korean Conflict. During this time, he found a profound love and passion for the Korean people as a young man. This passion became a devotion to his loving Korean wife of over 20 years. He was a faithful member of the Tyler Korean Baptist Church and loved all the members of the church.

Mr. Turner was a loving father and those left to cherish his memory are his six children and numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren and extended family.

6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. 7 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:6-7

I hate Don Turner. I'm glad he's dead. Since I left Texas life has been better. But I still run into people that make me feel the way they do. Australians/new zealanders got their feelings hurt by me because I don't like them because they're weird. Eh, maybe someone will like them but not me. There's a strong similarity between Don and them Australians/new zealanders. Must be a white person thing.

My husband started the Korean War Veterans Association in Tyler. Since his death, I have continued to attend the meetings and have interaction with the members. Don was faithful to the group, coming to meetings and other vet events from Longview even in bad weather. He was always a gentleman in his conduct. It was my pleasure to know him. Bettye Baty
