A wonderful memory I have of Doris that demonstrated her giving heart was also the first time I met her. She just happened to be at our church one morning and offered to help me set up the table place settings and centerpieces for a women's ministry dinner event -- as she quietly worked she took the time to pray over each person that would join us for the dinner. Doris was such a wonderful and godly example to me of serving others as Christ did. Loved her and will truly miss her. Prayers for peace and comfort for Jerry, Cami, Keith and family during this difficult time.

I remember Doris, when Jerry was the Pastor at Danville United Methodist church in Kilgore, Tex. She was the sweetest lady. She did the flowers by the pulpit and they were always so beautiful. I know she will be deeply missed by Jerry and the family, but she is in Heaven free of pain and walking those streets of gold.
