Ronald "Ron" Charles Horaney

JAN 30, 1962 - MAY 30, 2016

Ron Horaney, 54, beloved husband, son, father, uncle, cousin, nephew and friend died Monday, May 30, 2016 at a local hospital due to a sudden tragedy. Funeral services are scheduled for 2 PM Saturday, June 4, 2016 at Trinity Episcopal Church, 906 Padon, Longview with the Reverend Kevin Wittmayer, the Reverend Jonathan Jehorek and the Rev. Janeen Laurinec officiating. Entombment will follow at Rosewood Park Mausoleum under direction of Rader Funeral Home. A visitation and reception will be held in the Fellowship Hall of Trinity Church at 1 PM prior to the service.

Ron was born on January 30, 1962 in Longview to Albert and Betty Horaney where he resided until his untimely death. He graduated from Longview High School in 1980 and later earned an associate degree from Kilgore College. Ron also studied overseas at the University of Jordan in Aman. He loved to travel as was evident by his visits to twenty-four countries, where he made many friends. Ron loved people, never met a stranger, and enjoyed doing things to help others while never wanting or expecting recognition for his good deeds or service.

On January 6, 1996, Ron married Faezeh Pour Mogahdam at Trinity Episcopal Church and they were blessed with five wonderful children to whom he was very devoted and with who he enjoyed playing golf and being together for other family gatherings and outings. Faezeh was a loyal supporter of all Ron's endeavors. His family and his Lebanese heritage were very dear to him, and he always instilled the importance of both to his children.

Ron was owner of Horaney's Feed and Seed, and Agriculture business in Marshall and co-owner of Horaney's Longview. He was extremely proud of Horaney's being the recipient of the Small Business of the Year award from the Baylor University Hankamer School of Business. He was a member of the Longview Masonic Lodge #404, a Shriner, a member of the Harvest Festival Board and a member of Trinity

Ronnie was always a really kind hearted man to me and my family. 5 years ago I took my granddaughter to the store with me. The minute Ronnie set eyes on her , he said he was madly in love with her. She was 4 yrs old at the time. Blonde hair,blue eyes. He wanted to take her home with him to his dark eyed dark hair babies. He always talked about how she would fit it so well. We would gather our plants and seeds get ready to leave and he always give Karlee ice cream, a big smile and a hug. Never got to go to the store any more without her. She was his friend. Also over the years he has helped with our gardening needs so much.We will truly miss our friend.Our prayers for his family,Mitch and Charlotte Gunby

To Betty Jean (Barkett) Horaney and family,I send you and yours my sincerest sympathy in the tragic loss of your dear son and loved one, Ronald Charles Horaney.While I never had the pleasure of meeting Ron, the lovely things I have read and heard about him during this sorrowful time tell me his loss is not only sorrowfully sad for his family and friends but one of importance to the entire community of Longview. He was held in high esteem by many.I do not remember a time in my life when I did not know the Barkett family of Marshall. A local merchant, Charlie and Osma Barkett brought up a large warm and loving family, and each of those children were an immense source of pride to them. I know that you, Betty Jean, brought up your children in much the same way as did your good parents. That a good man and productive citizen has his life cut off when he should have had decades more is unspeakably tragic.It is my hope that you find comfort in knowing that your friends from long ago are here for you should your mettle be further tested. The simple fact of knowing that others weep along with you may bring you solace.I believe that there is a purpose in everything that happens in this life, even the things that happen for no apparent meaningful reason. There is something none of us know at the present but the Lord has called Ron home for reasons that one day we will understand.You are in my thoughts and prayers.Your friend from childhood,Betty Arnold Henderson(niece-thru-marriage of your first cousin, Ruth George Eason)
