I am the first son of Ina Lois McGuire of Longview Texas. She was the meanest and most hateful human I ever met in all my life. May she rot tin her grave and burn forever in the fires of Hell where I am assured by the word of God that she is there now. I went to school with her son, Wayne. He always spoke so fondly of her. He would joke with her about having the date in the 19 hundreds on the head stone. I'm sorry I never got to meet her personally. Praying for the family and friends. Vickie Semety

I have many fond memories of Lois while I was secretary at North Side. She was always there, a helping hand doing whatever needed to be done. She was one of my newsletter folders. May God comfort the whole family in the days and weeks ahead.

McGuire Family--What a wonderful lady! I remember so many good and funny things from her life. She was such a faithful member of North Side. You always knew she would be there, rain or shine! I count it a privilege to have been her friend in God's Kingdom! May God bless and comfort you in the days ahead. Carolyn McCasland
