Dick, I have many memories of both your Mom and your Dad. I grew up in the First Presbyterian Church of Longview. They supported the youth and were active in many places at the church where they were needed. She was always so happy. My Mother knew her went she was growing up. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. (sorry if second entry) Cheryl Walters Parr

Our Billie Sue Turner, love this precious lady . we meet her at the Alpine House where my mother lives.i don't believe she ever meet a stranger. full of love , humor, joy of life that touched any ones life that was around her. Dick ,you are a son everyone would love to have. we all know the close bond you two had for each other. My mother Grace Rains and I have so enjoyed having you two in our family at Alpine. My heart and prayers are with you in you loss. Grace Rains & daughter pat Hutcheson
