Tinka was also blessed with three great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews. Tinka is also survived by her brother R. G. “Robin” Brown, IV and wife Janet, and brother Charles W. R. Brown, all of Houston. Tinka grew up in Carthage, Texas and attended Trinity University prior to her marriage. She was also a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. At her death, Tinka was surrounded by her daughters, brother, grandchildren, and cousins, and made peaceful journey to her new home. Tinka’s life will be celebrated at a memorial service at Trinity Episcopal Church at 2 p.m. on Saturday, November 12th here in Longview. The family would like to thank Good Shepherd Medical Center, Summer Meadows Rehab, and Heart to Heart Hospice for their compassionate care. A truly wonderful lady. Mom, and later Dad after she died, would always make sure that she was the one that helped them at the bank, even if they had to wait a little longer. She always made sure that Dad was taken care of when he went there and she was the only one he trusted.Joe Albright

I was saddened to hear that sweet Tinka had passed away! Tinka and my Mom, Suzanne Black, worked together at the bank for many years. Tinka and Mom created many fun memories through the years and one stands out. I'm not sure of all the details but Tinka and Mom had a long time joke about one day they might get all dressed up in their gold lame' dresses to attend a party! I want to believe that these two friends are reunited in heaven at this very moment! I can just picture them completely healed, young again, and adorned in heavens finest of gold threaded dresses preparing to attend the most grand celebration as they are finally Home!Much love & prayers for Virginia & Lee and your families!
