Mrs. Regina D. Akins

NOV 27, 1954 - JAN 27, 2018

It is with great sadness that the family of Regina Diane Akins announces her passing after a long battle with cancer, on Saturday, January 27, 2018 at the age of 63 years.

Regina was born in Galveston TX, and lived in the Houston area during her early adult life. She lived in Longview, TX, with her husband and children since 1991. Regina was a mainstay at McLendon Cleaners in Longview where she worked for 25 years.

Regina is survived by her loving husband of 35 years, Henry, and her children, Colette (Kevin) Fourman, Lee (Diana) Bobbitt, and Henry Akins, Jr. She will be remembered fondly by her grandchildren Zachary, Curtis, Ashley, Dakota, Austin, Cody, and Jalen, and eight great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. She is also survived by her siblings, Macey (Gabriela) Contreras, Genaro (Sheryl) Contreras, Cathy (David) Birdsley, Bobby (Aline) Contreras, and Augie (Elizabeth) Contreras.

She was preceded in death by her two children, Emma and Charley.

Viewing will be 5pm-7pm, Thursday, February 1, 2018 at Rader Funeral Home in Longview. The funeral will be Friday, February 2, 2018 at 2pm at the funeral home with Pastor Lee Berger presiding. Burial will follow at Rosewood Park.

Sending prayers for Regina's family today, at the loss of a great woman. She was always sending prayers to others, even when she herself was so very ill. Regina always worked hard and she loved hard; her love and pride for her family was heartfelt and they made her happy. May God welcome her with continued joy and happiness in His arms, we will miss her. Barbara and Donald Trotter Houston, Texas
