I remember going to Uncle Tom and Aunt Lorene's house, and Uncle Tom playing his mandolin. Those were the days I wish we could live today. What sweet memories. That was when my twin sisters, Brenda and Linda Blackmon, and I first met Shirley and Fay. They were the sweetest girls, teenagers I suppose at that time. What fond memories of seeing them at the Tucker Reunion in the summer. Shirley and Fay both made an impression on us as they were so kind and as someone said above "beautiful both inside and out". Our condolences to the family. The Blackmon Girls Brenda, Linda, Lainey Peggy Tucker Blackmon's daughters Granddaughters of George Tucker!
