Lisa Fountain Williams

JAN 25, 1960 - JUN 1, 2018

Lisa Fountain Williams, age 58 of Longview was born on January 25th, 1960 to Herman and Polly Fountain at Markham Hospital in Longview. Lisa went to be with her Lord on June 1, 2018. She graduated from Pine Tree in 1978 and attended Kilgore Junior College. She married Kevin Williams on January 19th, 1985 and had 3 sons; Alex, Blake and Colin. She felt her true calling was raising her boys which led her to take a break from employment during their childhood. She was currently employed by LeTourneau University, as Administrative Assistant to the Dean of Aviation. She served for many years with Feminar Women's Ministry, Christian Heritage School as board member, and faithful servant of her church. She was a member of Mobberly Baptist Church where she loved rocking babies in the nursery. She was affectionately known by many as "Lolli".

Lisa is survived by her children Alex and Kimberly Williams, Blake and Kala Williams and Colin Williams, her parents Herman and Polly Fountain, her siblings Bruce Fountain, Becky Sherwood and Craig Fountain and multiple nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Monday, June 4th, 2018 at noon at Mobberly Baptist Church officiated by Bob White, followed by a private graveside service.

In lieu of flowers, Lisa requested donations be made to LeTourneau University, Bridge the Gap Scholarship. Attention Development Office, 2100 S Mobberly Ave, Longview, TX 75602.

Herman, Polly, Bruce, Becky, Craig, Alex, Blake, and Collin: We share your sorrow in the passing of our sweet Lisa. She taught us how to live and, most importantly, how to face death. At 5:30 Friday afternoon when God reached down and lifted her to Heaven, she experienced the fullness of God's love. What a blessing she has been in our lives. James and Christene
