Wanda Works Moore

Wanda Works Moore, 69, died June 7th, 2019 in Temple, Texas after a brief fight with cancer. Her memorial service will be held this Saturday, June 15th, at ten o'clock in Rader Funeral Home in Longview, Texas. A reception will follow afterwards.

Wanda was born December 29, 1949 in Odessa, Texas. She was one of three daughters born to Barney and Edith Works. She spent her years caring for children as a daycare director. For the last twenty years, she worked in radiology billing. Wanda enjoyed several artistic hobbies, including piano playing, singing, cake decorating, crocheting, and glass cutting.

She was an active member of Valley View Church in Longview, Texas, where she often played the organ and was a proud member of the Christmas Bell Choir. She had a life-long and genuine relationship with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She imparted her beliefs to her children and those around her, lovingly, and by example.

Wanda was preceded in death by her mother, her father, and her sister, Elaine Rainey. She is survived by her three children, Douglas Moore, Christi Cullum, and Trisha Wallace. She is also survived by her eight grandchildren, several nieces, nephews, and cousins, her sister, Hazel DeArmey, and her aunt, Daisy Freeman.

Wanda was truly one of a kind. I have so many memories of the time we spent together and my life was better for knowing her. She left a mark on each every one of us.Every time that we spoke during her illness she reassured me that she knew where she was going and was OK with everything she was facing. As much as it breaks my heart to say goodbye to her I can only imagine your loss. Our prayers are with each of you.Cindy Pittmon

I met Wanda 12 years ago when she came to Hawaii with Cindy as we joined SGS. She was such a nice lady, full of laughter and such a pleasure to work with. Although throughout the years, most of our conversations were through emails, she was always so willing, would ask how she can make it easier, and followed up with me whenever I asked her for assistance. I once emailed her and told her "You're the best" and she replied with an emoji of a superwoman with one arm flying and the other showing her muscle - it's so appropriate that her name fits her well. I miss her and she will always be in my prayers. May Peace Be With Her and Also With You, Carla Werner Acclaim Radiology Hilo Office
