Peggy Ann Blakeley

JUN 6, 1937 - JAN 8, 2020

Peggy Ann Blakeley, 82, of Longview, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, January 8, 2020, at Longview Hills Nursing Home. She was born on June 6, 1937, in Longview to Mr. and Mrs. W.L. Creger. Peggy and William raised their children, Margaret and Billy, in Longview, and were proud owners of a bustling automotive shop, A & B Spring. Peggy was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and dear friend, who loved her family and friends deeply. She was also a good-humored individual, often bringing a genuine smile and hearty laugh to those around her.

Peggy is survived by her son, Billy Blakeley and wife, Pam; grandchildren, Misti Curnutt and her husband Paco, Ashlee Arden and her husband Chris, Candace Boney and her husband Morgan, Cameron, Clayton, and Callie; great-grandchildren, Dakota, Haley, Brice, Jacob, Kate, Noah, Carter, Christina, Lexi, Levi, Ava, and Riley; and great-great-grandchildren Logan and Malaya. She is also survived by her companion, Herman Sepulvado.

Peggy is preceded in death by her husband, William Blakeley; daughter, Margaret Curnutt; and great-grandson Christopher Lichty.

Peggy will be missed tremendously by family, friends, and all those whose lives she touched.

I have known Peggy and her family since our school days. They meant a lot to me, and I am sorry to learn of her passing. I enjoyed being able to visit with her whenever she was able to attend church functions at Longview Missionary Baptist Church. Yes,...,until we all meet again.

I met this sweet lady shortly after my husband and I joined Longview Missionary Baptist Church in September 2015. I joined a group called CARES headed up by Sheena Butler. The focus of the group is to let those who are unable to come to services know they are not forgotten. I was privileged to meet Peggy through this ministry. Our granddaughter, Addison, thought so much of Ms. Peggy who had the same name as her Grammy! We loved her! She will be missed! ❤️ Until we meet again, Peggy Comer

To Billy, and all the many family members we send our comfort and healing by God's mercy. We lived in Longview near Peggy and family, and together we watched all the youngsters grow into adults. We moved to Temple, TX, and tried to keep in touch as best we could. Peggy was a very good friend, a person who was always willing to help and we are sorry she has passed away. We will forever be remembering her friendship. Norman & Gladys Hluchan
